

The Schnauzer Club of Great Britain Open Show 29/11/2015

Firstly I would like to thank the committee of the Schnauzer Club of Great Britain for the invitation to judge at their open show. No matter what the size, organising a show is always a massive undertaking and their efforts resulted in another friendly, well run event.

Schnauzer

V (Dog or Bitch) 3, (1).

1st and BVIS Lockyer's Miccosukees Destiny, nice head with dark eyes and neat ears, good length of neck and holds a nice top line, lovely square outline giving a nice balanced appearance. 2nd Pratt's Schabaal Vashti, strong head with dark eyes, nice neck and overall body shape, moved well but not the style of 1st.

MPD 3, (1).

1st Kelly's Miccosukees Game of Fortune, lovely head and good length of neck, well placed shoulders, a nice outline with good front and nice rear angulation. 2nd Railton and Eales' Lefenix Future Avenger, nice head but would prefer a smaller ear, needs to fill his frame but only a youngster and is sure to change as he matures.

PD 1.

1st, RBOB and BPIB, Lockyer's Miccosukees Rum n Raisin, nicely proportioned head with dark eyes and super expression, good length of neck and nice square outline, moved around the ring with confidence.

OD 4,(2)

1st and BIS Bawden & Brown's Ch. Khanate Gin Fizz ShCM. good length of head with dark eyes and neat ears, squarely built, good length of neck and holds a nice top line, good tail set and a nice spring of rib, I liked the front and rear angles which gave a very nice balanced appearance, nothing exaggerated and lots to like, moved well in the ring and loved his profile in the line-up. 2nd Miccosukees Va Va Voom, Nice head with strong muzzle and dark eyes, good neck, nice front and spring of rib, harsh jacket and a balanced outline.

MPB 4,(1)

1st Railton's Lefenix Future Majik, nice head with dark eyes and well held ears, nice neck and good rear angles, coarse coat, needs to fill her frame but plenty of time for this youngster yet. 2nd Allen's Amigris Ms Dynamite, nice head but a bit shorter in neck than 1st, nice front and good rear angles on the smaller side but again plenty of time for change. 3rd, Burrows' Kinjoeds Charlotte.

PB 2,(1)

1st Allen's Amigris Ms Dynamite.

PGB 3, (1)

1st Morgan's Hexenmeister Betty Noir, good head with nice depth of body, would have liked her to be carrying a little more weight, well presented in a harsh jacket. 2nd Railton's Lefenix Exhibit Perfectly, nice head although larger ear spoilt the expression, longer in body and preferred the top line of 1st.

OB 3,

1st Bawden & Brown's Khanate Euro Million, very good outline with strong head and well carried ears giving a super expression, nice neck and top line with a well set tail, good depth to rib and moved well in the ring, super profile in the line-up. 2nd Watkin's Miccosukees Hot Velvet, well built and well-presented in a harsh coat, nice head, a little longer in body than 1st. 3rd Watkins' Miccosukees Smooth Vanilla.

Giant Schnauzer

V (Dog or Bitch)

(2, 1) 1st and BOB Houslop's Eskaidee Klio at Aligael ShCM, very impressive bitch at 11 years, lovely feminine head, held her ears very well, enough neck with deep chest and good rear angulation, a super jacket with very nice colour and texture, moved around the ring with ease and could quite imagine her going off to work after the show. Lovely to see an older dog in this condition.

PD

(1)1st and BPIB, Veal's Philoma Man After Midnight, good head and expression, nice deep chest, harsh coat of good colour, beautifully turned out Giant but would prefer a slightly better tail set, steady smart mover.

JB

(1)1st and RBOB, Houslop's Eskaidee Firefly at Aligael, good head with a feminine expression and neat ears, good length of neck, deep chest with a good spring of rib, harsh coat of good colour, moved well.

Miniature Schnauzer

MPD

(2, 1) 1st Cherryman's Ruddlands Chop N Change, lovely brick shaped head with dark eyes and neat ears, enough neck, level top line to a well set tail, for me a little straight in front, nice spring of rib and good rear angulation, balanced appearance.

PD

(3, 1)1st RBOB, BPIB Day & Newman's Risepark Right Charmer, very nice head with dark eyes and neat ears, good length of neck, held a nice top line and correct tail set, good spring of rib, squarely built and very nice angles front and back, moved in the ring with confidence, lovely puppy certainly one for the future. 2nd Dormer's Starbound Martin, nice head but preferred the ears of 1st, lovely and short in body but looked a little tall making him unbalanced.

JD

(1)1st Clark's Khanlorba Rambling Man, nice head but would prefer a smaller ear, nice neck in to shoulder and a level top line, well set tail, nice rear angles but crabbed on the move.

PGD

(3, 1)1st Parker's Silversocks Scaramonga, good head, dark eye and neat ears, enough neck with a level top line and well set tail, good spring of rib and a super black jacket. 2nd Lock & Denning's Deansgate Basil, head a little untidy and would prefer more neck, a touch long in body, didn't move as well as 1st.

OD

(2, 1)1st Wareham's Elljaye Seconds Out, Strong head with dark eyes but just not the expression for me, ample neck and well placed shoulders, lovely square outline, well set tail and in good coat.

PB

(4, 1)1st Dixon's Prima Ballerina, Lovely feminine head with dark eyes and neat ears, an arched neck of good length flowing in to well laid shoulders, good spring of rib, level top line and lovely rear angles, tail carried well. 2nd White's Schnaustar She's The One, very nice cobby bitch in a darker jacket, not the top line of 1st. 3rd Wareham's Elljaye Fingers Crossed.

JB

(1)1st & RBIS Gudgin & Campbell's Ruddlands Wicked Ways With Jennayr, lovely feminine head with dark eyes and neat ears, squarely built with a good length of neck, holds a nice top line and well set tail, nice spring of rib, enough front and rear angles to give a very nice balanced appearance, nothing exaggerated, expertly handled to her advantage.

PGB

(6, 1)1st & RBIS Gudgin & Campbell's Ruddlands Wicked Ways with Jennayr (seen dog), 2nd White's Ashencruz Carousel at Schnaustar, lovely brick shaped head with dark eyes and neat ears, level top line to a well set tail, nice front and good rear angulation, would like a little more neck to give a more balanced appearance. 3rd Clark's Minimoll Umbrella Ella,

OB
