My sincere thanks to the Officers and Committee, for inviting me to judge this prestigious show, I enjoyed my day immensely. I should mention, my stewards Rob & Sue Mcgrann, who ran my ring with a seamless, quiet efficiency, many thanks guys. A big thankyou to the all the exhibitors, who made the day possible and so enjoyable.

MPD (1) Lichstone Midnight Farah (withdrawn)

Noisy tannoy upset this baby, before he came into the ring, hopefully he is young enough to forget this distressing experience.

PD (5/1) 1st Acasia Special Edition, Eye-catching p/s, excellent make and shape, good firm condition, strong headpiece, correct eye, and ear placement. Hard neat jacket, a little profuse on furnishings, especially over the elbow. Well held topline on the move, which was vigorous but true.(BPD)

2nd Homesteads Jaymitch Caravaca Cruzin, smart p/s, not as forward in body as 1, attractive head, good earset, nice shoulder presentation, ribs developing, good jacket and trim, moved out well.

3rd Facik Dzikie Pola at Dakyla, different style to this b/s being rangier, and bigger all thru. Strong headpiece, correct eye and dentition, well balanced with a strong jacket in both colour and texture. Moved well.

4th Wlanimu's Full of Fun.

JD (6/3) 1st Risepark Born To Be Wild for Jastalla, very smart p/s, lean head, correct eye, expression would be better with a little more in the eyebrow department. Excellent neck and shoulder placement, nice ribs, well muscled rear. Moved out well, although tends to drop his head, which marrs his outline. A lot more to come, pushed hard for the res cc.

2nd Cheantakes On The Rocks, attractive p/s, so well schooled and prepared. Body a little lighter all thru than 1, short backed, neat hocks, moved with drive and purpose.

3rd Nujax Americano, p/s of excellent make and shape, good head planes, strong neck, leading into well laid shoulders, hard body condition. First class jacket and presentation, movement let him down, far too excited.

ND (5/2) 1st Wareings Cascayd Caravaggio, b/s, won this class on his overall make and shape. Body maturing well, good ribs, short in loin, nicely sloping topline, excellent coat and colour. Movement too slow and untidy.

2nd Beanara Njals Sago at Lyzahro, white up to size, a little broad in back skull, dark eye, nice expression, decent ribs, good loin and hocks. Coat could be a little denser, moved out well, enjoying his go round.

GD (4/1) 1st Kkanlorba Ramblin Man presentation on this p/s was first class, strong headpiece, correct eye, well placed ears. Decent neck, a tad upright in shoulder, neat ribs, strong well muscled rear, beautiful crisp neat jacket, held his topline on the move, which was steady and true.
